*Providing Technology
Entrepreneurs with Opportunities*

The CTech IncUBator@University of Bridgeport accelerates the growth of innovative technology start-up and early-stage companies by creating a community in which you, the entrepreneur, can succeed. The CTech IncUBator provides access to a broad network of resources, including other entrepreneurs, investors, business and technology advisors, and university interns.

The CTech IncUBator is a partnership between Connecticut Innovations, the State of Connecticut's quasi-public authority for technology investing and innovation development, and the University of Bridgeport (UB). Located at UB's main campus, the CTech IncUBator is Fairfield County's first and only university-based incubator for high-tech start-ups. The incubator's purpose is to assist in commercializing new technologies, create jobs and foster regional economic development.

Providing Entrepreneurs with Opportunities

Connecticut has a long tradition of supporting innovation and nurturing the growth of start-ups and early-stage companies. The CTech IncUBator provides investment expertise, business and technology acumen, university research, resources and other strategic enablers to provide technology entrepreneurs with opportunities to succeed at the very earliest stages. The CTech IncUBator provides:

- Favorable market rents in fully furnished offices. Rent includes all utilities
- Shared support services
- Pro-bono and discounted professional services assistance (e.g. legal, accounting, intellectual property, technology, product commercialization and SCORE advisors)
- An entrepreneurial environment conducive to exchanging information, ideas and solutions.
- Access facilities and resources like library, recreation center, café and many more located on campus
- Introductions to potential investors and pre-seed and seed funding programs
- Access to resources supporting grant opportunities (SBIR, STTR)
- Access to world-class faculty members and exceptional student interns

The CTech IncUBator creates a convenient, collaborative environment that will help you grow your company. With common facilities, shared services and access to years of business expertise available through partner organizations, tech companies and entrepreneurs at the CTech IncUBator will have a jump start on success.

Join us today and give your company the edge it needs to succeed in Connecticut's exciting technology community.
